

The board decided for Maud Kotasová, the main candidate where all members of the board agreed quite unanimously on the quality and the potential of the project in the local context. The board appreciated in her case playfulness combined with a strong message. The work immediately attracts curiosity, but is also flexible to environment, adapting to and reflecting on different spaces.

Other candidates on the waiting list (in this order) – Max Lysáček, Jana Orlová

Board of the Czech Centre Bucharest Residency (summer 2022)

Liliana Basarab

Liliana Basarab is a visual artist currently based in Bucharest. Her socially engaged practice employs a variety of media including performance, sculpture, drawing, workshops and video. <http://lilianabasarab.com/>

Alexandru Niculescu

Alexandru Niculescu is an artist, curator and co-founder of Sandwich gallery. His practice includes alongside painting complex projects involving other artists, curators and researchers based on movements, collaboration, participation such as Train Travels, Watermelon Residency, Process Terminus, Mobile Biennale, Club Electroputere.

Robin Ujfaluši

Director of the Czech centre in Bucharest.

In Bucharest, 15 March 2022

On behalf of the board, Robin Ujfaluši

Rob Ujf

