

Inkonst x IDU x Czech Centre Stockholm music residency for Czech artists 2024

Out of a strong pool of applications, the committee has selected Petra Hermanová for the residency at Inkonst, Malmö in autumn 2024, based on her previous work with church organs and auto-harp, ongoing international touring and clearly described goals of the residency in the motivation letter.

Other candidates on the waiting list: Sára Vondrášková, Ursula Sereghy, Mojmir Měchura

Residency committee:

Ulf Eriksson is the artistic director of Inkonst and the Intonal festival. He also runs the label Kontra-Musik and is also one of the organizers behind the new Mutants festival, a festival that will take place in Tbilisi, Georgia.

Mika Hallbäck is the head of marketing for both the Inkonst music program and the Intonal festival. Mika is also an electronic musician and is behind the moniker Rivet. He is mainly releasing his music on the label Edition Mego.

Lisa Blanning is a producer at Inkonst and producing the Intonal festival. Lisa has a long history in the music business, mainly as a journalist, but also as a booking agent. She is now, besides her work at Inkonst, an agent for the Berlin based booking agency Disk.

Michal Brenner, the director of Czech Centre Stockholm and coordinator of the SHAPE+ platform.

In Stockholm and Malmö on September 18, 2024
